Dave Jones & Diana Dooley on “Everything you ever wanted to know about Health Care Reform in California”

Everything? Well, a lot.

As our new Insurance Commissioner, Dave has quickly reaffirmed his national health-care reputation with accomplishments like requiring that 80% or more of health insurance premiums go toward actual health care, requiring insurers to cover pre-existing conditions in children, issuing guidance to implement federal healthcare reform, and reducing medical malpractice rates.

As Secretary of California Health & Human Services, Diana is Jerry Brown’s pit bull on healthcare (she doesn’t look like one, does she?). Since taking charge of the state’s healthcare agency, she has tackled a wide variety of health projects, the most recent being the setting up of the Governor’s GET HEALTHY CALIFORNIA task force, an ambitious 10-year plan for improving the health care of all Californians.

Thursday, August 16 / 11:30–1:00 pm / The Sterling Hotel, 13th & H Streets
Single tickets $50
