

“2014 is going to be a great year for Sacramento Democrats.
But to make it happen, I’m going to need you to be a Truman Club sponsor.”

My minions at the Harry S Truman Democratic Club are hard at work putting together Four Fabulous Luncheons again this year. Here’s a look at what they’ve firmed up so far–

- Two Secretaries of the Cal Labor & Workforce Development Agency, David Lanier (present) and Marty Morgenstern (past) will give us a behind the scenes look at Jerry Brown’s operation, what’s up with labor, and Morgenstern’s plans for Pension Reform at his new position. Thursday, March 20
- Water War Update Jerry Meral, called “Former Tunnel plan Chief” by the Bee and Jonas Minton of the Planning & Conservation League, are going to hash out the latest moves between the wets and the dries. They have promised to pull no punches (and throw none). Water pistols must be checked at the door. Early summer
- Election Forecast On the Thursday before the election, Josh Pulliam, Andrew Acosta (two masterminds behind countless demo campaigns) and Dan Morain, the Bee’s political Editor (pending) will tell us how the elections are going to turn out. Thursday, October 30
- Congressman George Miller, Jr. Nancy Pelosi’s strong right arm and one of the top Democratic legislators of his generation, is stepping down at the end of this year after four decades in Congress. Date tba

Your President is asking

“Can you be a Sponsor this year?”

Sponsorship levels start at $350 (1 ticket to each luncheon) or higher—$750, $1250, $2500, $5000, $10,000

Keep in mind that HST club (and that includes you) gave over $27,000 to voter registration and democratic candidates since 2012
